

CONSTRUCTION LAW – LAWS 2218.02 SYLLABUS

Instructors: Kevin Gibson and Aidan Meade

Credit Value: 2 hours per week; 2 credits

Prescribed Text: Schedule of posted readings

Evaluation: Open book final examination representing 100% of course mark

Plagiarism: All students in this course must read:

- the University policies on plagiarism and academic honesty referenced in the Policies and Student Resources sections of the plagiarism.dal.ca website, and
- the law School policy on plagiarism, as set out in the law school regulations (available in hard copy from the Associate Dean's office and online at http://law.dal.ca/Current_Students/Course_Selection_Materials/Regulations_Handbook/index.php).

Any paper or assignment submitted by a student at Dalhousie Law School may be checked for originality to confirm that the student has not plagiarized from other sources. Plagiarism is considered a serious academic offence which may lead to loss of credit, suspension or expulsion from the law school, or even revocation of a degree. It is essential that there be correct attribution of authorities from which facts and opinions have been derived. Prior to submitting any paper or other assignment, students should read and familiarize themselves with the policies referred to above.

Ignorance of the policies on plagiarism will not excuse any violation of those policies.

Students with Special Needs/Requests for Accommodation:

Students seeking special accommodation with regard to course evaluation, such as exam deferral and extensions to deadlines, should consult with Associate Dean Michael Deturbide or Assistant Dean Elizabeth Hughes as soon as possible, and before an exam is scheduled to be written or an assignment is due. Requests for special accommodation for reasons such as illness or personal circumstances will require an application to the Law School Studies Committee. Students should contact Associate Dean Michael Deturbide or Assistant Dean Elizabeth Hughes if they require more information about the Studies Committee process. Students wishing to discuss arrangements for classroom assistance should see Professor Sheila Wildeman, the law faculty advisor to students with disabilities.
