

Ms. Susan Rolston

MA Dalhousie University
BA (Hon.) University of Western Ontario

Email: srolston@dal.ca

Susan Rolston is sole proprietor of Seawinds Consulting Services, providing research, writing, editing, indexing, and management and production of publications services. Ms. Rolston's areas of special expertise include marine policy and management, maritime security, the environment, and international affairs and development. Over the past two decades, she has held research and management positions with marine-related institutes and programs at Dalhousie University. Ms. Rolston has contributed to numerous marine science and policy publications. She holds a B.A.(Hons.) from the University of Western Ontario and a M.A. from Dalhousie University, both in Political Science. Ms. Rolston is a Fellow of the Centre for Foreign Policy Studies, Dalhousie University, and a member of the Bay of Fundy Ecosystem Partnership. She is a Past Chair of the Nova Scotia-Gambia Association and is Treasurer of the Halifax Branch, Canadian Institute of International Affairs.