

RENEWABLE ENERGY PROMOTION IN ATLANTIC CANADA: A KEY COMPONENT OF A SUSTAINABLE ENERGY
STRATEGY

---

WORKSHOP AGENDA

---

Thursday, May 19th (Room #105 Dalhousie Law School, 6061 University Ave.)

6:30pm – 9:00pm

Presentations/Panel Discussion – Renewable energy law and policy options for Atlantic Canada

- Renewable Energy Law and Policy in Europe (Preben Maegaard, World Wind Energy Association)
- Renewable energy across Canada (Kenneth B. Ogilvie, Pollution Probe)
- A Nova Scotia perspective on renewable energy (Scott McCoombs, NS Dept of Energy)

Friday, May 20th (Room #104 Dalhousie Law School, 6061 University Ave.)

8:30am – 9:30am

- Welcome and Introductions, Prof. Meinhard Doelle
- Keynote Address, Honourable Jamie Ballem, Minister of Environment, PEI

9:30am – 10:30am

- Two 20 min presentations articulating the strengths and limitations associated with:
  - ▶ Advanced Renewable Tariffs (ARTs) and complementary tools – Paul Gipe
  - ▶ Renewable Portfolio Standards (RPSs) and complementary tools – Jeff Deyette
  - ▶ Initial question period

10:30am – 10:45am -- Coffee Break

10:45am – 12:00pm

- Moderated interactive discussion on law and policy options to advance renewable energy development in Atlantic Canada.
  - ▶ Moderator: Prof. Peter Tyedmers

12:00pm – 1:00pm -- Lunch to be provided

1:00pm – 2:30pm

- Facilitated small group discussions to identify key barriers to the further expansion of renewable energy in Atlantic Canada

2:30pm – 3:00pm -- Coffee Break

3:00pm – 4:00pm

- Reporting from afternoon sessions
- Identify key capacity and research needs

4:00pm – 4:30pm

- Closing reflections on the day

Law • Policy • Governance