OCEAN YEARBOOK

Ocean Yearbook, Volume 19

Edited by Aldo Chircop and Moira L. McConnell

Published in cooperation with the International Ocean Institute and Dalhousie University Law School, Ocean Yearbook is an invaluable research tool for marine biologists, oceanographers, students of international law, and analysts of foreign policy and international security.

Volume 19 includes articles on: Canada's Opportunity for Global Leadership in Ocean Resource Governance; Roles for a Precautionary Approach in Marine Resources Management; the First International Ocean Science Conference; Management Measures to Restore Sustainability to Shrimp Fry Fishing in Bangladesh; Subsistence Fishing Rights in South Africa; Poland's Baltic Sea Fishery; the Importance of Controlling Eutrophication; the Economics and Ethics of Making Polluters Pay; the South Pacific Region's Influences on Global Marine Environmental Policy-Making; the Challenges of Rising Sea Levels, Storm Surges and Shoreline Erosion; the Socioeconomic Implications of Siting Marine Protected Areas in the U.S.; Evaluating and Enhancing the Implementation of the Convention on Biological Diversity; Maritime Security, Terrorism and the Consequences for the Shipping Industry; the Strategic Development of Liner Shipping Companies and Terminal Operators; Container Shipping in the European Ranges; Recent Seafarers Research; and a 21st Century Profile of Global Seafarers.
